The Republican party will continue in power in the Ninth District so long as the Mugwuing's control the Federal appointments. Col. Baldwin, who did all he could lo elect the present Republican Congressman, controls all the appointments in the district. We oppe President Cleveland will not be censured for this defeat. The gentlemen who represent this State in Congress and recommend such persons to the President for appointment, dre responsible for much of the disaffection in Kentucky. The Republicans and Mugwumps have more influence in some of the districts than Demberats, and for this reason there is no enthusiasm in the party. This is what is called general apathy .-Western Argus.

EDMONDS BRANCH.

B. F. Curnutte, of Wayne Co., W. Va., spent a few days with friends and relatives here last week.

The most important event of the limes was the close of G.B. Carter's school at this place on the 18th

The following was the programme which was strictly adhered to: From 9 to 11:40 o'clock a. m. an old fashioned spelling match, in which all present took part. Then a candy treat by the teacher, in which all had plenty.

Intermission. School convened at one o'clock p.in. Singing by the school which was perfectly delightful. The school then produced declarations, dialogues and solent readings that ell as interesting. Song by Man

I may say just here that much credit is due the teacher of in the drilling of the children in the exercises. Then an oration by D. F. Curnutte, subject Elocution and its Devotional exercises by Wm.

Bently and Landon Carter. Then the valedictory address by the teacher, which was both sub-lime and instructive. He spoke first to the patrons, then to the young men of the country, and last to the children who had been his care for five months. His address touched "Physical Education," and then a farewell to all, as he intends starting away to school shortly. We regret very much to lose him from our midst as he is an excellent young man. But may he go and accumulate more of the knowl edge which is in store for the human family and may success ever crown his efforts; for his zealous and en-The friends of the late Gen.
